

I WONDER WHY

When I was a little kid
I didn't understand
Why the thunder was so loud
I held my grandma's hand

My Dad took me on the porch
And told me that the storm
Made the flowers grow up tall
And wouldn't do me harm

There is a time to cry
There is a time to wonder why
Everything's a little strange
Everything is going to change
A little bit
From time to time
And then you'll see
You'll crack a smile
And life is good
Not scary now
The moon will jump
Over the cow

Once there was a little bird who had a certain way
He'd open up his beak and we would wonder what he'd say
Sometimes he would make these sounds that didn't make much sense
He was never sure what he'd say next which always made him tense

There is a time to cry
There is a time to wonder why
Everything's a little strange
Everything is going to change
A little bit
From time to time
And then you'll see

You'll crack a smile
And life is good
Not scary now
The moon will jump
Over the cow

So if you want to be Extraordinary
Ask lots of questions
And then you're bound to see

That when you wonder why
You'll find the answers soon
Just like the scientist
Questions the moon

Sometimes you move differently and I think that's okay
You are who you are and I wouldn't have it any other way
You may feel like you don't fit in but why would you want to Every flower, every tree is different just like you

There is a time to cry
There is a time to wonder why
Everything's a little strange
Everything is going to change

A little bit
From time to time
And then you'll see
You'll crack a smile

And life is good
Not scary now
The moon will jump
Over the cow

The moon will jump
Over the cow?
I guess this song
Is over now
